

Health Access Program

at the

Oak View FRC

We offer services to pregnant women and families with children 0-5 years old

- Bilingual help with insurance paperwork (Medi-Cal, Healthy Families, California Kids and Kaiser Permanente)
- Home visits by public health nurses and home visitors
- Immunization follow-ups
- Help with setting up medical appointments
- Referrals to community agencies (medical services, counseling, parenting classes, services for victims of crimes, and more)
- Workshops and classes on health topics

Oak View Family & Community Resource Center

17261 Oak Lane, Huntington Beach, CA 92647
Monday—Friday from 8:30am—5pm

Adi Ruiz, Health Access Coordinator
Telephone: (714) 842-4002 ext. 203

Children & Families
Commission of Orange County

This program is made possible by a grant from the Children and Families Commission of Orange County.

